1. AN INTRODUCTION TO PAIA AND POPIA

- 1.1 The Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2000 ("PAIA") came into operation on 9 March 2001, which among other things,
 - 1.1.1 seeks to give effect to the Constitutional right of access to any information held by the State or by any other person where such information is required for the exercise or protection of any right and gives natural and juristic persons the right of access to records held by either a private or public body, subject to certain limitations, in order to enable them to exercise or protect their rights;
 - 1.1.2 sets out the requisite procedural issues attached to information requests, including the obligation to compile a PAIA Manual;
 - 1.1.3 obliges both public and private bodies to compile a PAIA manual, which PAIA manual sets out how a person, who is desirous of requesting certain information which he/she /it believes he/she/it has a right to, may go about requesting such information.
- 1.2 Where a person is desirous of obtaining information from a private and / or private body, in terms of PAIA, then such person must make a request for this by following the laid out procedure and using the prescribed forms, described under the private and / or private body's PAIA Manual.
- 1.3 On receipt of the request, the body receiving the request must decide if it is able to provide the requested information to the requester in accordance with the provisions of PAIA.
- 1.4 The Protection of Personal Information Act, 4 of 2013 ("POPIA"), which largely commenced on 1 July 2020, gives effect to a person's rights to privacy, including the rights to data privacy, and which Act, in accordance with this objective, describes and prescribes a series of conditions which have to be met when personal information is processed and used by another person, which conditions establish the minimum requirements for the processing of personal information.

- 1.5 POPIA amends certain provisions of PAIA, balancing the need for access and to information against the need to ensure the protection of personal information.
- 1.6 POPIA has established the office of the Information Regulator who will oversee and ensure that POPIA and PAIA are complied with by all persons, including individuals, and public and private entities in South Africa.

2. OUR PAIA MANUAL

- 2.1 This Manual is compiled in accordance with section 51 of PAIA, as amended by POPIA.
- 2.2 This Manual applies to all information held by Sappi Limited, Registration Number 1936/008963/06, Sappi Southern Africa Limited 1951/003180/06, Registration Number and its
- 2.3 For purposes of this Manual, we refer to ourselves as "Sappi", "we"," us" or "our".
- 2.4 This Manual sets out how any person may:
 - 2.4.1 go about requesting information, including personal information, which they believe we hold and which they have a right to;
 - 2.4.2 which forms have to be completed by such person requesting the information;
 - 2.4.3 any fees and or deposits that may have to be paid before the requested information is provided, should we agree to provide the requested information;
 - 2.4.4 lodge a withdrawal, objection or complaint against the processing buy us of personal information in terms of POPIA;
 - 2.4.5 make or file a request for us to delete or destroy personal information in terms of POPIA.

3. WHO ARE WE - ABOUT US AND OUR BUSINESS

- 3.1 Sappi was formed in South Africa in 1936 to serve South African consumers with locally produced paper.
- 3.1 We have a tradition of innovating and developing new products to meet local demand for newsprint, graphic papers, packaging papers used to protect our customers' products (especially in the agricultural sector) and speciality papers used in the convenience food, confectionery, cosmetic and luxury markets, and tissue paper for household, medical and industrial use in the Southern Africa region.
- 3.2 We are also the world's largest manufacturer of dissolving pulp (DP), which are used worldwide by converters to create viscose fibre for fashionable clothing and textiles, acetate tow, pharmaceutical products as well as a wide range of consumer and household products. Almost all of the production of our mills in South Africa is exported.
- 3.3 Sappi Southern Africa operates five mills and has a combined production capacity of 102,000 m3 of structural lumber, 690,000 tons of paper, 633,000 tons of paper pulp and over a million tons of dissolving pulp per annum. The pulp purchased by our European business is effectively hedged by Sappi Southern Africa being a net seller of pulp.
- 3.4 Our headquarters in Rosebank, Johannesburg (South Africa), manages the sub-divisions of Sappi Paper and Paper Packaging, Sappi Dissolving Pulp and Sappi Forests. A number of regional functions like finance, human resources, sales and marketing, technical and engineering as well as board functions are also based there.

12. REQUEST PROCEDURE

- 12.1 PAIA states that a requester must be given access to any record of a private body if- that record is required for the exercise or protection of any rights; that person complies with the procedural requirements in this Act relating to a request for access to that record; and access to that record is not refused in terms of any ground for refusal contemplated in Chapter 4 of PAIA. A request contemplated includes a request for access to a record containing personal information about the requester or the person on whose behalf the request is made.
- 12.2 Any request for access to a record or to personal information in terms of PAIA or POPIA must be made on the form attached hereto marked Form 2 Annexure "A" called Request for access to record of private body, or one which substantially corresponds with the form.
- 12.3 A request for access to information which is not housed under this form or which does not comply with POPIA or PAIA will be rejected and returned to you.

13. ACCESS TO HEALTH RECORDS OR OTHER RECORDS IN TERMS OF SECTION 61 OF THE ACT

- 13.1 For the purposes of this section, the term "relevant person" shall refer to the requester and /or the authorized person making a request on the persons behalf.
- 13.2 Requesters must stipulate in their request for information what health information is required, understanding that information held by a medical practitioner must be obtained directly from him or her. No hospital can release information held by another party, or information that is protected by a medical practitioner /patient relationship.

- 13.3 The Information Officer, in terms of Section 50 of the Act, may only grant a request for access to information and/or a record provided by a medical practitioner in his or her capacity as such, about the physical or mental health of the requester him /herself, or to authorised person making such a request on behalf of the person concerned.
- 13.4 The Information Officer may in terms of Section 61 (1) of the Act, refuse access to information and/or records, if he or she is of the opinion that such disclosure would cause serious harm to the requester's physical and/ or mental health.
- 13.5 Before the Information Officer allows, grants or facilitates access to information and/or records, he or she may consult with the treating medical practitioner who, subject to Section 61(2) had been nominated by the relevant person.
- 13.6 If the relevant person is:
- 13.6.1 under the age of 16 years, a person having parental responsibilities for the relevant person, must make the nomination referred to in Section 61() of the Act; and/or
- 13.6.2 incapable of managing his or her affairs, a person appointed by the court to manage those affairs must make that nomination.
- 13.7 If after the Information Officer has given access to the medical practitioner, and the medical practitioner is of the opinion that the disclosure of the information and/or record to the relevant person, would likely cause serious harm to his or her physical and/or mental health, or well being, the Information Officer may only grant access to that information and/or record if he or she has been given sufficient guarantees by the requester, that adequate provision has been made for such counselling or arrangement as are reasonably practicable before, during or after the disclosure of the information and/or record limit, alleviate or avoid such harm to the relevant person.

- 13.8 Before access to the information and/or record is so given to the requester, the person responsible for such counselling or arrangements must be given access to the information and/or record.
- 13.9 The Information Officer may also refuse access to the Information and/or records in terms of any other law.

14. PRESCRIBED FEES

- 14.1 Section 54 of PAIA entitles Sappi to levy a request fee where records are requested under PAIA.
- 14.2 No request fee may be charged where a data subject in terms of POPIA asks a responsible party to confirm, (*which has to be done free of charge), whether or not the responsible party holds personal information about the data subject.
- 14.3 Where personal records have to be produced or provided to a requester by Sappi, in terms of either PAIA or POPIA, then certain prescribed fees may be levied by Sappi, and such records will not be disclosed until the necessary deposits and / or fees have been paid in full, where applicable.
- 14.4 The Fees payable will depend on the type of information requested. These fees are described under Annexure "B" Fees in respect of private bodies.

15. PROOF OF IDENTITY

When requesting records or information under PAIA or POPIA, you will be required to submit acceptable proof of identity such as a certified copy of your identity document or other legal forms of identity.

16. TIMELINES FOR CONSIDERATION OF A REQUEST FOR ACCESS

- 16.1 Requests will be processed within 30 (thirty) days, from date of receipt thereof, unless the request contains considerations that are of such a nature that an extension of the time limit is needed.
- 16.2 Should an extension be required, you will be notified, together with reasons explaining why the extension is necessary, which in most cases be a period of 30 (thirty) days.

17. GROUNDS FOR REFUSAL OF ACCESS AND PROTECTION OF INFORMATION

- 17.1 There are various grounds upon which a request for access to a record may be refused. These grounds include:
 - the protection of personal information of a third person (who is a natural person) from unreasonable disclosure:
 - the protection of commercial information of a third party (for example: trade secrets; financial, commercial, scientific or technical information that may harm the commercial or financial interests of a third party);
 - if disclosure would result in the breach of a duty of confidence owed to a third party;
 - if disclosure would jeopardise the safety of an individual or prejudice or impair certain property rights of a third person;
 - if the record was produced during legal proceedings, unless that legal privilege has been waived;

SAPPI GROUP PAIA MANUAL
POLICY NUMBER	REVISION NUMBER
	2

- if the record contains trade secrets, financial or sensitive information or any information that would put Sappiat a disadvantage in negotiations or prejudice it in commercial competition; and/or
- if the record contains information about research being carried out or about to be carried out on behalf of a third party or by Sappi.
- 17.2 Section 70 of PAIA contains an overriding provision: disclosure of a record is compulsory if it would reveal (i) a substantial contravention of, or failure to comply with the law; or (ii) there is an imminent and serious public safety or environmental risk; and (iii) the public interest in the disclosure of the record in question clearly outweighs the harm contemplated by its disclosure.
- 17.3 If the request for access to information affects a third party, then such third party must first be informed within 21 (twenty one) days of receipt of the request. The third party would then have a further 21 (twenty one) days to make representations and/or submissions regarding the granting of access to the record.

18. REMEDIES AVAILABLE TO A REQUESTER ON REFUSAL OF ACCESS

- 18.1 If the Information Officer decides to grant a requester access to the particular record, such access must be granted within 30 (thirty) days of being informed of the decision.
- 18.2 Where the Information Officer declines any requester access to the particular record, such decision will be relayed to the requester. There is no internal appeal procedure.
- 18.3 In the event that you are not satisfied with the outcome you are entitled to apply to the Information Regulator or a court of competent jurisdiction to take the matter further.

FORM 5 - LODGING OF COMPLAINT

[Regulation 10.]

Note:
1. This form is designed to assist the Requester (hereinafter referred to as "the Complainant") in requesting a review of a public or private body's response or non-response to a request for access to records under the Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2000 (Act No. 2 of 2000) ("PAIA").
Please fill out this form and send it to the Information Regulator or complete the online complaint form available at https://www.justice.gov.za/inforeg/ .
2.PAIA gives a member of the public a right to file a complaint with the Information Regulator about any of the nature of complaints detailed in part E of this complaint form.
3.It is the policy of the Information Regulator to defer investigating or to reject a complaint if the Complainant has not first given the public or private body (herein after referred to as "the Body") an opportunity to respond to and attempt to resolve the issue. To help the Body address your concerns prior to approaching the Information Regulator, you are required to complete the prescribed PAIA form and submit it to the Body.
4.A copy of this form will be provided to the Body that is the subject of your complaint. The information you provide on this form, attached to this form or that you supply later, will only be used to attempt to resolve your dispute, unless otherwise stated herein.
5. The Information Regulator will only accept your complaint once you confirm having complied with the prerequisites below.

6.Please attach copies of the following documents, if you have them: •Copy of the form to the Body requesting access to records; •The Body's response to your complaint or access request; •Any other correspondence between you and the Body regarding your request; •Copy of the appeal form, if your compliant relate to a public body; •The Body's response to your appeal; •Any other correspondence between you and the Body regarding your appeal; •Documentation authorizing you to act on behalf of another person (if applicable); •Court order or court documents relevant to your complaint, if any. 7. If the space provided for in this Form is inadequate, submit information as an Annexure to this Form and sign each page. The legal basis for the following agreements is explained in the Privacy Notice on how to file your complaint document. In order for the Information Regulator to process your complaint, you need to check each one of the checkboxes below to show your agreement:

I agree that the information Regulator may use the information provided in my complaint to assist it in researching issues relating to the promotion of the right of access to information as well as the protection of the right to privacy in South Africa. I understand that the Information Regulator will never include my personal or other identifying information in any public report, and that my personal information is still protected by the Protection of Personal Information Act, 2013 (Act No. 4 of 2013). I understand that if I do not agree, the Information Regulator will still process my complaint.

The information in this Complaint Form is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

I authorize the Information Regulator to collect my personal complaint information (such as the information about me in this complaint form) and use it to process my human rights complaint relating to the right of access to information and / or the protection of the right to privacy.

I authorise anyone (such as an employer, service provider, witness) who has information needed to process my complaint to share it with the information Regulator. The Information Regulator can obtain this information by talking to witnesses or asking for written records. Depending on the nature of the complaint, these records could include personnel files or employer data, medical or hospital records, and financial or taxpayer information.

If any of my contact information changes during the complaint process, it is my responsibility to inform the Information Regulator; otherwise my complaint could experience a delay or even be closed.
